

5,184,000 Excruciating Seconds

That's the number of seconds – an estimated two months until she dies “naturally” – that your beloved and terminally-ill aunt has to suffer profoundly because she cannot die with dignity at a time and in a manner of her own choice.

Victorian law denies you the right to choose.

The vast majority of Victorians believe they should have the right to choose... so the law currently lags significantly behind the will of the people.

Support Dying With Dignity Victoria's charter for law reform. Visit www.dwdv.org.au today to learn how you can help.

Dying With Dignity Victoria
Respect for the right to choose