Official “The performances from Dussollier and Marceau are quietly outstanding” – The Guardian

Selection 2021 Cannes Film Festival - Nominated for the Palme d'Or

Sharmill Films is proud to announce the Australian theatrical release of the acclaimed new film from legendary French director François Ozon (Frantz, 8 Femmes, Swimming Pool), Everything Went Fine, coming to cinemas from May 19, 2022.

Acclaimed director François Ozon and actress Sophie Marceau team up for the first time, accompanied by veteran actors André Dussollier and Charlotte Rampling, bringing to the screen a moving father-daughter story that heroes the tenacity of two sisters.

When Andre, 85, has a stroke, his daughter Emmanuèle hurries to her father's bedside. When he wakes up diminished and dependent, this vital and curious man who loves life asks his daughter to help him end his life.

Everything Went Fine, the new film from François Ozon based upon the novel 'Everything Went Well' by Emmanuèle Bernheim, premiered in competition at the 2021 Cannes Film Festival, earning praise from audiences and critics alike as a 'clear-eyed, handsomely constructed drama' (Daily Telegraph).

Screening Only in Cinemas from May 19, 2022
